

Oxford e-books

What is it?

A collection of e-books, including the popular Oxford handbooks.

Do I need a password?

Yes, you need an NHS Athens username and password. If you do not have one, follow the self-registration link from <https://openathens.nice.org.uk/>.

How can I access...?

Go to the library website <http://library.northumbria.nhs.uk/>, where you will find a link to the library catalogue. When you view any title which is included in the collection, there will be a link to the e-book. You might need to scroll down to find this.

There are knowledge guides on the library website – collections of information and resources, including direct links to e-books, on particular subjects. See the list at <http://library.northumbria.nhs.uk/knowledge-guides/>

To see the full collection:

- Go to <http://oxfordmedicine.com/> and click on the link to Login with Athens.
- Select NHS England from the list of organisations, and then Browse all titles in your subscription.
- Click on the book title to see the list of chapters.
- You can download a chapter as a PDF to print/save or download a figure into a PowerPoint slide.

How do I search?

Use the search box in the top right corner to search for words or phrases (use quotation marks for phrases, e.g. “multiple sclerosis”). If you have not already selected Browse all titles in your subscription, select unlocked and free in the Narrow your choices column.

You can also refine your results by specialty, career stage (doctor, nurse, allied health) and series. For example, you can limit your search to chapters from Oxford handbooks.
