

Athens

Athens www.athens.nhs.uk provides NHS users with a single password for many online resources. These are the most used resources available to people with a Northumbria Healthcare Trust Athens account:

NICE Healthcare Databases

A collection of medical, nursing and allied health databases including Medline, Embase, CINAHL and PsychINFO.

NICE Journals

A complete A-Z listing of all the journals you can access, both in print and electronically.

UpToDate

An evidence-based peer reviewed information resource.

Oxford Medicine e-books

130 e-books from OUP, including all the Oxford Medical and Nursing Handbooks.

ProQuest

ProQuest provides full text journals. Major journal titles from medicine, nursing and allied health, psychology and health management are included.

British National Formulary and BNF for Children app

Download the BNF and BNFC app.

BMJ Journals

The BMJ journals with current full text. The collection includes Archives of disease in childhood, Emergency medicine journal, Thorax and Heart.

Royal Marsden Manual Online

Clinical nursing procedures

Registering for your Athens account

If you do not have an NHS Athens account, you can register yourself.

- Either register from an NHS computer or use a work/university email address (or both).
- Go to the intranet and choose A for Athens or go to <https://openathens.nice.org.uk/>
- Follow the on-screen instructions.
- Find your NHS Trust (Northumbria Healthcare NHS Trust)
- Fill in the other requested details and you will be given a username.
- You will receive an email confirmation of your registration. Click on the link in the email to choose your password. You can now use your Athens account.
- If you have problems accessing Athens or you forget your username/password, please do not re-register - contact us for advice.
- If you move to another Trust you can keep your NHS Athens and saved searches. Log in and choose Change your organisation.
